Clean-up Day Ely Primary School, Year 6

a) When and why

On Saturday 19 May, Year 6 took part in the school's first Clean-up Day. Our aim was to remove rubbish from the park on Grant Street.

b) Participants

Forty people took part, including all of Year 6, teachers from school and volunteer parents.

c) What we did

We met at the park at 9.00 am. The teachers provided us with bin bags. Everyone brought their own gloves. We filled eight bags in two hours!

d) Future activities

We are going to make Clean-up Day a regular event. If we advertise our activities, we may stop people from dropping rubbish. We are going to write to local officials to request more rubbish bins and "No Littering" signs in the park. If we work together, we will make Ely a nicer, cleaner place!
